Become a Volunteer:

At Fairfax House we provide a warm welcome and aim to share our knowledge and enthusiasm with our visitors. If you have an interest in the history of York and would like to help Fairfax House in its mission to enable more people to access this special place, why not apply to volunteer as part of our friendly team of room stewards? We offer a training programme for all new volunteers to acquaint them with the House and volunteering with us. You can find an application form on our website or call in to collect a copy.
